

Useful Information About the Venue FAO

Welcome to the Web2forDev conference at FAO in Rome!

The following is a list of information that you may find useful during your visit at FAO

- Cloakroom – open all day every day of the conference
- Aventino Room – Welcome cocktail 25 September 6:15 pm– Cafeteria – 8th Floor
- Polish Bar – morning and afternoon complimentary coffee - open every day until 8:30am - 5pm
- Green Room – One floor above main entrance lobby – Building A – First floor – all plenary sessions held here each morning.
- The Internet Café is located in the David Lubin Library – Building A – Ground floor
- The e-Learning Laboratory for the Web2 Taster (September 24) activities is located in the David Lubin Library – Building A – Ground floor.
- Most areas in FAO, including the Atrium, offer WIFI connectivity

Log-in details:      Username: visitor
                                 Password: connect2web

Please note that authentication is case sensitive!!!

- On FAO premises you will find a bank with ATM machines, a newsagent, a bookshop, and a travel agency
- If you prefer not to deal with the cafeteria crowds please note that there is a reasonably-priced FAO Restaurant on the 8th floor
- The FAO cafeteria offers terrace seating
- Other lunchtime alternatives: three bars across the road from FAO offer outside seating and light Mediterranean-style fare including sandwiches and salads
- Rino's fine Italian restaurant also across the street from FAO
- A metro stop to downtown Rome is located directly across the street from FAO
- The Coliseum is a brisk ten minute walk away!

- Questions? Ask the Documents Desk staff